

SOVIETS LOSE THOUSANDS BUT BEAT WRANGEL

Bloody Fighting in Crimea Results in Annihilation of Anti-Reds.

APPROACH TURK BORDER

British Send Patrol to Keep Reds From Overrunning Whole Country.

By United Press Leased Wire
Constantinople—Sébastopol was the center today of a wild debacle. Its harbor was filled with water craft ranging from war vessels to row boats, all carrying human cargoes away from the rising Red wave.

General Wrangel's army was in collapse, and the conquering bolshevik troops swept southward upon the city. The White troops were practically wiped out in their defense of the narrow neck of the peninsula where three divisions checked twenty-two assaults by twenty-eight divisions of the enemy. The soviet army broke through the stubborn defense finally and spread unchecked over the areas behind the line. The soviet losses were said to mount into the thousands after troops had been thrown time after time against the strong defenses.

Dispatches here said the bolshevik leaders admitted loss of thirty thousand in the hand-to-hand fighting at Perokop where waves after waves of attackers were driven back. Poison gas was used according to these reports. Five thousand wounded Wrangel men have arrived here. The bolsheviks gave no quarter, these men said. Once the entry into Crimea had been forced, the Red troops engulfed the small defending army, they said, ignoring all signs of surrender.

The Russian coast of the Black sea has been blockaded. A British torpedo boat has started a patrol to keep bolshevik troops from spreading into Turkey.

Wrangel's collapse was believed due to the overwhelming superiority of the bolshevik numbers.

The Reds were led by clever officers, some of whom were reported to be foreigners.

Another reason was said to be plotting and corruption behind the lines. Carists, scheming for seizure of the government, were said to have expended large sums among the Wrangelites.

Premier Krievichin of Wrangel's government arrived here today weary and broken.

The premier said General Wrangel was still in Sebastopol but that the city was to have been evacuated Sunday night. Red cavalry was at the outskirts of the city last yesterday. The infantry had proceeded rapidly to the city, capturing Yalta and Eupatoria.

French, British and American warships in the Black sea, moved toward Sebastopol yesterday to aid in removing the thousands of refugees.

Surrender Demand
Berlin—Moscow wireless dispatch said today the Russian government had demanded immediate surrender of General Wrangel, leader of the Crimean forces.

Amnesty was promised Wrangel and his troops.

Want Trade Agreement
London—Quoted negotiation of a trade agreement with bolshevik Russia was urged today.

The Chronicle declared that fighting the bolsheviks merely strengthened them. It hoped the French government would cease its support of anti-bolshevik forces in Russia and adopt the British view of trade with the bolsheviks.

Writing in the Observer, J. L. Garvin said:

"This is the utter end of France's recognition of General Wrangel. This helpless leader has followed in the footsteps of Kolchak and Denikin and others. Our business now is to recognize an executive Russian government whatever it may be. Foreign force cannot smash the bolshevik system. Trade is far more likely to transform it into a modern system."

150,000 Captured
Paris—The foreign office estimated today the bolshevik had captured between 150,000 and 200,000 Wrangel troops in their drive on the Crimea.

Foreign office advices said the bolshevik losses in killed and wounded were enormous.

One report to the office said Sebastopol had been entered and that General Wrangel still was in his headquarters there. This was not verified.

HOLD WOMAN FOR DEATH OF HER BABY ON TRAIN

ROBBING MAIL CAR AT OMAHA

Twenty Year Old Boy Tells Police He Threw Pouches Out of Car.

$93,000 MISSING FROM MAIL

Eastern Detectives Mystified by Disappearance of Registered Mail.

By United Press Leased Wire
Omaha, Neb.—Federal officials today arrested Merle Phillips, 30, railway baggage employee, as one of the three men who late Saturday robbed a mail car on a fast transcontinental passenger train of ten registered mail pouches, said to contain close to $20,000.

Phillips, according to the federal officials, confessed he forced his way into the car and threw out the pouches which were picked up by two accomplices. Names of the other two men were said to have been given by Phillips.

Phillips was arrested as he was going to work.

The loot, according to officials, consisted of California gold currency bonds and stocks. The currency, bonds and stocks were being sent from various California banks to the eastern correspondent. It is expected it will be several days before the amount of loot taken is definitely known.

According to railroad officials, the pouches were stolen after the train left Omaha and before it reached Council Bluffs, Iowa, the first station east of Omaha.

A postal clerk, finding the door to the coach, where the pouches were, looked, battered it down. But the robbers had completed their work. The train was opened at Omaha and Council Bluffs and it would not have been difficult for the robbers to jump from the train.

$93,000 Is Missing.
Pittsburg, Pa.—Postoffice authorities and private detectives seeking solution of the theft of $93,000 missing from registered mail sent by a local bank to the Western Steel company at Weirton, W. Va., were withdrawn today.

The robbery was discovered when a mail pouch supposed to contain the currency, was opened and found filled with old newspapers.

Arrest Robbery Suspect
Minneapolis—John Reilly, arrested in Kansas City, is believed to be the driver of an automobile in which four bandits escaped after taking $10,000 and $20,000 in liberty bonds from the Minneapolis state bank last March.

He was brought here Saturday by Police Captain John Galvin, and is said to have confessed.

POLICE FIND MOONSHINE IN BURNING RESIDENCE

Milwaukee.—While firemen were fighting a blaze that drove ten persons into the street in their night clothing last night, police raided the house, seizing a five gallon still. A large quantity of mash also was found. The damage from fire was slight.

Sixty persons were driven out into the cold late last night when fire broke out in a thirty two apartment building. No one was injured and the loss was slight.

KANSAS FARMERS BURN CORN INSTEAD OF COAL

Topeka.—That many northwestern Kansas farmers are burning corn as a substitute for coal was the message brought to Governor Henry J. Allen today by former State Senator H. S. Hendricks and State Senator-elect Frank P. McIvor.

They told the governor that some of the farmers are burning corn because it is cheaper fuel but that many others are doing so because they are unable to buy coal.

Wife Of Missing Minister Confident He Will Return

By United Press Leased Wire
Passaic, N. J.—"Oh, it is nothing. My husband will be back by next Sunday. He will preach his sermon next Sunday—sure. There is no doubt of that."

And Mrs. Cornelius Densel, whose husband, pastor of the First Methodist Reformed church, disappeared last Friday, nodded her head and smiled confidently as she sat huddled in her little home here today with the snow flakes flying past the window.

As for the fact that Miss Trina Hananberg, a member of the congregation, vanished at the same time as the reverend Doctor Cornelius Densel—that apparently bothered Mrs. Densel not a whit.

"He knew Miss Hananberg, but slightly," she said.

"There is nothing to worry about. We think he may have suffered a touch of loss of memory, from overwork in his study. He will come back to us."

The elders of the church evidently fail to share Mrs. Densel's firm confidence in the missing pastor. They planned to meet tonight to pick his successor.

Yesterday Mrs. Densel ran the gauntlet of curious stares and marched to church with some of her brood of eight children. Of course there were sidelong glances and whisperings but such arrows as those could not pierce her faith in her husband. She heard her husband's resignation read from the rostrum and there was a rustle. She heard the presiding officer, John Rose, and Cornelius Van derhoven read the morning and evening sermons—written by her husband—and she nodded at the points scored in them just as proudly as if they were being read by the pastor himself.

Mrs. Densel swept up her husband's study today and put his papers in order and dusted off his table and even put his chair at his favorite angle before his desk, so he would find everything when he returned.

Relatives of Miss Hananberg, who is 26, said they thought she had gone to some other city to find work. They also scoffed at the suggestion that there might be any connection between the almost simultaneously disappearance of the girl and the pastor.

NO U. S. SOCIALIST AT BERNE CONFERENCE

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—The American socialist party will not send representatives to the international socialist conference at Berne, on December 5, Otto Bransetter, secretary of the party, stated today.

The only reason no American will be present is because the short time before the meeting makes it impossible for a man from this country to arrive in Berne for the session. The invitation for American socialists to attend the meeting has just been received.

50 Year Old Rail Equipment Balks At Presidential Load

CHAIRMAN HAYS MAY BE SENATOR

Republican Leaders Work Out Plan to Reward Party Chieftain.

By United Press Leased Wire
Point Isabel, Texas—Another effort to escape from this storm swept little fishing village was to be made today by President-elect Harding and his party. They plan to try the plan again today, the road being almost impassable from the rains. Sunday was spent trying vainly to get the president-elect into Brownsville from Point Isabel where he has been marooned forty-eight hours in one of the severest storms that has ever beat over lower Texas.

But the little narrow gauge road that offered the only chance of getting the senator out of here, failed to make good after taking four hours to run a mile beyond the village and back again.

So senators, millionaires, baggage and all unloaded in the dark and the party tugged across the country by lantern light to the Inn to spend the night hoping for better luck today.

Through it all, Senator and Mrs. Harding joined in the general good humor with which the party took its predicament.

Mrs. Edward B. McLean's famous Hope diamond, probably the most costly and famous gem in all the world, sparkled from her neck in the center of the most distinguished party that ever rode in either of the Rio Grande railroad's two passenger cars.

"It's a great lark," Senator Harding laughed.

With high hopes at the prospect of being snugly quartered in Brownsville out of the storm, the Harding party packed trunks and luggage early Sunday morning.

Mr. Grande's railroad equipment was brought from Brownsville fifty years ago. It consisted of a small box car for trunks and a tiny coach mounted without springs, several windows missing, a little tin stove in the center of the floor, low bare benches running lengthwise on both sides, rattly doors which refused to stay shut most of the time and a "locomotive" built out of an automobile engine, mounted on four wheels.

The Harding baggage was loaded in and as many of the party could, bundled in sweaters or blankets, squeezed into the coach, the others stowing away on top of trunks in the baggage car.

Senator and Mrs. Harding, wrapped up to their necks, climbed aboard.

The Mexican engineer got out and cranked up and after a few false starts, the "presidential special" crawled away. It finally reached a speed limit of ten miles an hour and the spirits of the party went up accordingly with reservations. Four queer sounds began to emit from the engine head. Then it came to a dead stop and all climbed out. Already the Mexican major domo was lying face up under the engine clawing among a network of chains and gears, talking Mexican meanwhile. Somebody translated it as a broken transmission shaft. Then the other train, coming from Brownsville, appeared around the bend ahead. It had been derailed and was several hours late. Its crew pitched in to help the disabled train. Parts were scattered about and after three hours it was all back in place again. Meanwhile, Senator Fred Hale had walked back to Point Isabel for sandwiches and coffee. Mrs. Harding, sitting on an upturned suitcase, served the food as senators, the president-elect, their wives, maids, secret service men and newspapermen lined up for handouts.

COLORADO HOUSING CONDITIONS PROBED

By United Press Leased Wire
Denver, Col.—The housing conditions in Colorado were investigated here today by the United States senate committee on reconstruction.

Numerous witnesses from all parts of the state were summoned. A shortage of several thousand homes exists in Colorado, according to statements by real estate men.

Senator Wm. Calder, of New York, said today the committee has received a leading suggestion. Two most important, he stated, were creation of home loan banks modeled on the farm loan plan and exemption for a year or two from all local taxation of new buildings intended for dwellings.

MAN, LOADED WITH BOOZE BEATS UP A POLICEMAN

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—"John Doe" will have an opportunity to tell where he got his "fighting liquor" in district court today.

"John Doe" who refused to give his name to police, spent last Sunday in jail, after he is said to have "cleaned up" on several people and then man-handled a policeman who attempted to arrest him. The officer, Patrolman Robert Quandt, was treated at Emergency hospital after "John" planted his foot in his face, injuring the left side of his face and his left eye.

FIND CLEWS TO MURDER OF TWO STAGE WOMEN

Police Investigation Shows Actresses Had Been Fighting With Men.

FIVE MEN UNDER ARREST

Believe Young Women Froze to Death or Are Wood Alcohol Victims.

Chicago—Two pretty young actresses found dead in Grant Park on Chicago's lake front, were either frozen to death or died from wood alcohol poisoning, according to officials here today.

Bodies were identified as Mary Rhodes, of Altoona, Pa., and Lillian Thompson, of Boston.

Dr. Joseph Simmons, coroner's physician, after a hasty examination of the bodies, declared the marks and bruises were not such as to cause death. Simmons said indications were that death might have been caused by alcohol poisoning. Simmons planned to analyze stomachs of the two victims today.

Lieut. John Norton, in charge of the murder squad, expressed the belief that the women froze to death.

Authorities investigating the death of two actresses, were informed today that two women answering their description, were seen in a fight with two men in an automobile near where the bodies were found.

Witnesses to the fight said that it occurred about the time physicians judged the women dead.

Locate Phone Call
Police claimed today they had located the man who made the mysterious telephone call early yesterday apprising them of the death and location of the two women.

The call, they said, was made from the Stafford hotel and not from an office building as first reported. They refused additional details.

First information of the fight, which police believed might lead to a solution of the mystery which surrounds the deaths of the two women—Mary Rhodes of Altoona, Pa., and Lillian Thompson of Boston—came in an anonymous telephone call to the undertaker's rooms where the bodies are held.

The informer, a man, said he would appear at the undertaker's rooms later in the day and give full details of the fight. In the meantime, police investigation partly confirmed the story of the brawl from other sources.

Arrest Five Men.
The two women were being forced into an automobile by two men, according to the word of the anonymous informer. He said one of the men was fighting with one of the women and was dragging her into the machine. The other woman went to her companion's aid, he said, but was pushed away. The informer said he went to the assistance of the two women, but was told to "beat it." Fearing for his life, he said, he ran.

Five men were held by police today in connection with the crime. They included James C. Meeks and Robert McCarthy, electricians for the Jano Cowl company, playing "Smilin' Through" at a local theater, who admitted they had been living with the two women at a downtown apartment hotel since they came to Chicago. The two women were married but have petitioned for divorces, the men said.

The others held were Sylvio and Peter Citti, wine merchants, who gave girls some wine Saturday night, and James Conna, clerk, who was frequently seen in company with the girls.

Miss Thompson was found lying on her back with her hands crossed on her chest. Miss Rhodes was lying face downward. Their hair was tangled with cockley burrs.

BLACKLISTED FOR EXPOSING GRAFT

Sea Captain Tells How He Was Treated After Refusing Bribe.

New York.—Charges that he has been abused, arrested, tried for inefficiency and practically blacklisted from the seas for exposing graft in the United States shipping board, were made today before the War Relocation Commission by Captain William H. Chambliss, of South Orange, N. J., former commander of the Lake Elwood.

He charged that ninety four days and more than $98,000 were spent in making minor repairs on the Lake Elwood in Rio de Janeiro that should have taken only two days and expenditure of $2,000.

He charged that after refusing to accept $100,000 bribe to stop making repairs, he was forcibly removed from his ship by soldiers in Rio de Janeiro and that his personal belongings and $1,000 of the ship's money were taken and during his absence, the ship was looted of $3,000 worth of provisions and riddled of everything valuable.

Upon his return to the United States the shipping board filed charges against him for inefficiency. He was acquitted by the department of commerce and his license was returned but he has been unable since to get another commission, he said.

ITALIAN DEFIES JUGO-SLAV PACT

Gen. D'Annunzio Seizes Islands Awarded to Jugo-Slavia by Treaty.

By Camillo Cianfrani
By United Press Leased Wire
Rome.—Gabriele D'Annunzio has occupied the islands of Arce and Vergina in defiance of the Italian-Jugo-Slavian treaty settling the Adriatic dispute.

The islands are directly south of Fiume which was made an independent city by the treaty.

The D'Annunzio government aroused the enthusiastic support of the Fiume population in denouncing the Santa Margherita treaty.

D'Annunzio declared his plans had the support of Admiral Millo of the Italian navy.

D'Annunzio called his cabinet together as soon as authentic copies of the treaty were received. A formal statement was read to the public by Premier Zoli and large mobs set forth immediately to raid nearby towns. Sussak was stormed and all Croatian signs were torn down.

Fiume legionnaires were dispatched to the Castina region where they established sentries and assumed control of the villages. The towns had been assigned to Jugo-Slavia under the treaty.

CHEER U. S. NAME AT WORLD LEAGUE MEET

6 CHILDREN DIE IN THEATER FIRE

Owners and Manager of New York Playhouse Charged With Manslaughter.

By United Press Leased Wire
New York—Three men were under arrest today while various city departments were conducting investigations of the fire panic in a movie theater on the lower east side last yesterday which resulted in the death of six children and injury of a dozen others.

The stampede started when a woman shouted "fire" as smoke from a furnace fire seeped through the floor. The victims ranged in age from 2 to 13 years of age. Those under arrest were Bernard Weinberg and Max Schwartz, proprietors, and Joseph Point, the manager who started the furnace fire. They were charged with manslaughter.

There were about four hundred persons in the theater, half of whom were children.

In the gallery, the only entrance to which was a steep, narrow stairway, were about 100 children.

When the cry of "fire" was raised, the first of the children to reach the stairway stumbled and plunged headlong to the bottom. There they were trampled upon by the fear-maddened children who scrambled after them.

According to the police, the exit door at the foot of the stairway was jammed. When policemen and firemen reached the theater they found a tangle of little forms tightly wedged against this door.

The police had difficulty in handling the frantic parents who rushed to the scene when they heard of the panic.

KANSAS LAW DOES NOT COVER MILLS

Four Mills of Kansas Idle Because They Can't Meet Competition.

Topeka, Kan.—The Kansas court of industrial relations may not be able to regulate the Kansas flour mills because they do not sell enough of their products in the state to affect conditions. It was indicated today in testimony taken in the hearing to determine the cause for the mills closing.

Seven Topeka mills were summoned to show cause why they should not keep their mills going at full capacity or why the state should not take over the mills if they refused to do this.

S. P. Kramer, president of the Topeka Flour Mills company, the first witness, stated that less than five per cent of the output of his mill was sold in Kansas. The industrial law states that the state may take over and operate private industries only when they are being conducted in a way that causes a scarcity of essentials or causes the public to suffer.

Kramer testified his mill was not operating at capacity because mills of the northwest, able to get cheaper Canadian wheat are selling flour at a dollar a barrel less than the Kansas mills can afford to sell it. He said that the only reason his mill was running part time was because of a loss of orders which are going to northwestern millers who are getting cheaper wheat to grind.

COST $2,940 TO SEND WOMAN TO CONGRESS

Washington.—The campaign of Alice Robertson, newly elected congresswoman from the second Oklahoma district, cost $2,940, according to a report received by the clerk of the house of representatives today.

RED CROSS SHOW ATTRACTS CROWDS

Interesting Exhibits in Armory Hold Attention of Appleton People.

The Red Cross show attracted large crowds to the armory Saturday, both afternoon and evening. Exhibits of Outagamie county Red Cross work were in booths on the right side of the building and the national exhibit on the left. Posters picturing phases of the work were arranged on the walls.

One of the most striking posters was one in the Outagamie county exhibit, picturing a graveyard of 183 babies, under one year of age, who died in this county in two years. The poster emphasized that many of these deaths might have been prevented by proper care.

Red Cross nurses instruct mothers in the care of children. Another poster showed that out of 1,535 children inspected last year, there were only 547 with no apparent defect. A very large per centage had defective hearing or sight or were afflicted with throat trouble.

The national exhibit contained pictures of the relief work done in regions of disaster, and also the vocational training given disabled soldiers.

A movie "My Brother's Keeper" was shown on the screen. The picture showed the various types of relief work accomplished by the Red Cross nurses. It showed how moving picture machines were carried by truck into the obscure mountain communities which otherwise never had any entertainment.

One of the Outagamie Red Cross nurses gave a demonstration of the proper way of giving the baby its bath.

Ho-Co and Ro-Co, the health clowns instructed the children and amused them with their talk on the value of fruits and vegetables as food, and their antics on the stage.

The total number of automobiles in Appleton is 1,133 assessed at $49,175. Last year the number was 913 and the assessed value was $408,575. Kaukauna has 252 automobiles assessed at $118,395. The number last year was 219 and the assessed value at $86,410.

Rural mail carriers like to be accommodating to their patrons, but they do not enjoy picking pennies from the bottom of mail boxes in cold weather.

The carriers find that a patron here and there has failed to buy stamps, and places the letter in his box together with enough pennies to pay the postage. The carrier usually must unfasten the side curtain on his machine, remove his gloves and then try to extricate the coins with numbing fingers.

"I would suggest that every patron purchase a supply of stamps now that the cold weather is here," said one carrier. "This will save them and the carriers inconvenience. We always carry stamps and envelopes and it is a wise plan to have half a dollar's worth of stamps on hand."

The carriers say they like to accommodate their patrons even though the postal rules require postage stamps to be affixed to letters, but would appreciate a little more cooperation by some who perhaps unintentionally are without postage stamps.

TREASURY OFFERS NEW DEBT CERTIFICATES
The United States treasury department has issued a new series of treasury indebtedness certificates, according to notice received at the local postoffice.

The new issue is series "D, 1921" and the certificates are dated November 15, 1920. They mature May 15, 1921 and bear interest at 5% per cent payable semi-annually. The denominations are $500, $1,000, $10,000 and $100,000. One interest coupon is attached payable May 15.

The certificates are considered an ideal investment for people with funds loose for short periods, surrounded by all the safety that goes with government securities. They are exempt from federal, state and local taxation except on inheritances, surtax, excess or war profits tax.

Any bank will handle subscriptions for these securities, or they may be obtained from the nearest federal reserve bank.

RACINE ASYLUM ROW COMING TO A HEAD
Racine, Wis.—The board of supervisors, believing a change necessary in the management of the county insane asylum, may refuse to accept the resignations of Henry W. Lewis and wife, superintendent and matron but might accept the resignations of certain trustees who represent the county in the administration of the asylum and farm.

There have been clashes between the superintendent and certain trustees. Mr. Lewis announced his readiness to retire Jan. 1, when his contract expires, but members of the county board declare that they will not permit him to resign because his administration has been the most successful of any superintendent in the history of the county institution.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS
E. L. Less Meat if Kidneys Feel Like Lead or Bladder Bothers You.
Meat Forms Uric Acid

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney troubles while it is only trouble.

TAXATION LAWS TO BE EXPLAINED HERE

All Businessmen Are Urged to Attend Federal Tax Lecture Wednesday Night.

Advice and instructions that will eliminate the annoying and aggravating features of the federal tax laws will be the aim of the address by W. H. Sprague, chief field deputy of the Milwaukee internal revenue office, who appears here Wednesday evening under the auspices of the chamber of commerce.

The gathering will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the vocational school auditorium and will be open to all chambers of commerce members and others who want detailed explanations of the income and other tax blanks that must be filled out after January 1.

A letter has been sent to every chamber of commerce member by Burt Williams, Milwaukee collector for the first district of Wisconsin. He explains the nature of Mr. Sprague's address and urges every business man to hear it.

Mr. Williams states that penalties are often imposed on taxpayers because of lack of knowledge. His letter says: "In carrying on such an extremely large volume of business, it has been necessary for us to establish new methods, standardize our work, and place as much of our work as we can into a routine procedure. It has been my observation during the past year that, in many cases, the routine handling of so many matters, penalties are imposed on taxpayers where there was probably no just cause for such action. This sometimes happens because the taxpayer is not informed sufficiently as to the proper procedure to make the representation of his matters to this office."

Mr. Sprague handles thousands of cases of delinquencies and penalties of taxpayers each year and is in a position to know the common errors and misunderstandings of the taxpayer, public of Wisconsin. His experience qualifies him for expert advice, and to make the enforcement of federal

URGENT RURAL PATRONS TO BUY STAMP SUPPLY

Rural mail carriers like to be accommodating to their patrons, but they do not enjoy picking pennies from the bottom of mail boxes in cold weather.

The carriers find that a patron here and there has failed to buy stamps, and places the letter in his box together with enough pennies to pay the postage. The carrier usually must unfasten the side curtain on his machine, remove his gloves and then try to extricate the coins with numbing fingers.

"I would suggest that every patron purchase a supply of stamps now that the cold weather is here," said one carrier. "This will save them and the carriers inconvenience. We always carry stamps and envelopes and it is a wise plan to have half a dollar's worth of stamps on hand."

The carriers say they like to accommodate their patrons even though the postal rules require postage stamps to be affixed to letters, but would appreciate a little more cooperation by some who perhaps unintentionally are without postage stamps.

SEES ENTIRE WORLD IN ECONOMIC CHAOS

Madison—"To predict a panic today is absolute folly; to predict no panic is likewise folly," said Prof. W. A. Scott, director of the course in commerce at the University of Wisconsin.

"We are still in the midst of a far-reaching economic chaos, in the opinion of Prof. Scott.

"The great war has stirred up the whole world," said Prof. Scott, "and readjustment has scarcely begun. No attempt has been made among nations to balance their budgets; no nation has found a successful means of taxation to relieve its war debts and again, no definite decision upon the league of nations in the near future seems possible—the nations are still wrangling on that score."

"Our political situation is vague; commerce is still crippled; and, convertible currency is in an abnormal state. Until this veil of economic chaos lifts itself, it is folly for the wisest to predict the future."

BADGER APPLES GONE; NOW BUY FROM NEW YORK

(Special to Post-Crescent.) Madison, Wis.—"Wisconsin apples have been practically all sold," says the division of markets, "and the state is being supplied with apples from other states, largely New York. The division of markets is assisting farmers' organizations and others in the state in securing cars of apples for winter use and are getting stock delivered direct to the consumer at reduced prices. A car recently was secured by the division for a farmers' organization in the northern part of the state and the farmers were sold apples at a price that was 6 cents a pound below that being charged by dealers. The production of apples in the state this year was much larger than usual as the 1920 crop amounted to 8,650,000 bushels as compared with 2,700,000 bushels in 1919. The crop in the United States is approximately 88,000,000 bushels greater than the 1919 crop."

The matter of penalties will also be dealt with in detail, and the procedure connected with them explained. His address will close with a discussion of claims, affidavits, overpayments and other relevant questions. An open discussion will be conducted at the close of the meeting, giving everyone in the audience a chance to ask questions about any tax matter.

This will be the first of a series of lectures on the subject of taxation, conducted by the chamber of commerce to help Appleton business men and individuals. A. Archibald Harris, Chicago, will speak at the November membership meeting of the chamber Wednesday evening, November 24.

Keep Your Blood Pure
Nature Will Do the Rest

Did you know that ninety percent of all human ailments depend upon the condition of your blood?

Nature gives her warnings in various unmistakable ways, so that when the appetite fails, and you become weak and listless and a general run-down condition seems to take possession of the whole body, it is an unfailing sign that impurities will steadily accumulate until your general health will be seriously affected. You should recognize the importance, therefore, of very promptly cleansing out the system, and keeping the blood supply pure and robust.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drugstore to day, and note how promptly it builds up the appetite and gives new strength and vitality. Write for free literature and medical advice to Chief Medical Adviser, 153 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

WANT LEGISLATION TO PROTECT WOOL GROWERS

Congressman D. C. Glasson, recently reelected, is being made the center of a fight by the Wisconsin Wool Growers' association to secure congressional legislation which will protect the wool grower and the consuming public. The association wants all woolen goods labeled in such manner that the consumer will know how much new wool there is in every yard of cloth which he buys.

Arthur Capper, senator from Kansas, is the joint author of a bill which is being considered by congress to remedy many of the alleged injustices. Officials of the Wisconsin Division of the Fleeced Wool States Growers' Association are among the number who are appealing to Senator Capper as well as Wisconsin congressmen to secure legislation which will protect the public.

bred cattle valued at $5,550; graded cattle valued at $5,965; hogs valued at $2,025; horses valued at $1,400; and poultry valued at $697.75.

In his annual report Frank P. Dougherty, attending physician says: "The health of the inmates as a whole has been exceptionally good. During the year we have had but seven deaths, five males and two females. There has been no epidemic of any kind during the year. We had several bad fractures which necessitated removing the patients to St. Elizabeth hospital, as the nursing facilities at the institution were not adequate for these special cases. The institution is in good sanitary condition at all times and speaks well for the superintendent and matron. The food partaken by the inmates could be no better and there is a proper rotation of same."

AUTO TURNS OVER ON LITTLE CHUTE ROAD

While on his way to Kaukauna, Louis Wichman came upon a Ford up side down in the ditch between Little Chute and Kaukauna. The track of the wheels showed that the accident happened while the driver was endeavoring to get out of a deep rut, the automobile leaping to the other side of the roadway before he had time to operate the wheel. There was an embankment of about four feet where the auto was lying. The auto disappeared before Mr. Wichmann returned so he did not learn to whom it belonged or whether or not anyone was injured.

AJAX
Naphtha
Chips

CONTAINS OLIVE OIL AND NAPHTHA

MADE BY THE PALMOLIVE COMPANY MILWAUKEE, U.S.A.

No Soaking

No Rubbing - No Soaking No Boiling

if you use Ajax Naphtha Chips in your washing machine

Every owner of a washing machine should read this advertisement. Read it carefully, then tell your dealer to send you a package of Ajax Naphtha Chips.

For this is the new chip perfected for washing machines. It contains Naphtha and Olive Oil, scientifically combined ingredients selected for their efficient cleansing qualities.

And remember, the right soap is just as important as the right washing machines.

Loosens Dirt

The action of the Naphtha is to loosen dirt and make the action of your washing machine thoroughly effective.

It takes out grease and helps dissolve stains.

It does away with the need for soaking, rubbing and boiling. Rinse thoroughly and you are through. The only exception would be exceptionally dirty work clothes.

Professional cleaners use fine soap and Naphtha to clean delicate fabrics. This is the principle followed in Ajax Naphtha Chips.

Keeps Clothes New

Olive Oil is the finest possible ingredient that could be used for the making of fine soap. This mild, rich, crude green oil tends to give them their greenish color.

Olive Oil lather keeps clothes fresh and soft. It preserves their newness. Olive Oil soap is used by woolen goods manufacturers and the makers of fine lace for this reason.

Ajnx Naphtha Chips are pure soap—containing no adulterants or impurities.

Curly Green Chips

Every wafer in your package of Ajax Naphtha Chips are thin, with a curly twist.

This twist is a special feature, which keeps the chips from matting. It lets the water penetrate and dissolve every tiny particle.

This means easy rinsing and no soapy smell.

A Big Package

Ajax Naphtha Chips come in an extra-big package—an economy package—containing five times as much as most packages.

Because they are pure soap they go at least twice as far as the average laundry soap. This means a double saving.

Your dealer keeps Ajax Naphtha Chips. If he doesn't, tell him to get them for you.

But don't do another washing without them. They make your washing machine do good work, and they save you a world of trouble.

WHAT THE "GREAT MINDS" ADVISE

It now appears that in the midst of the campaign, that is in August, Elihu Root advised Senator Harding, indirectly, against the idea of "scrapping" the League of Nations. David Lawrence makes public the text of a cablegram sent by Mr. Root from London for the benefit of the Republican national committee, which follows:

It is very unwise to declare the League dead. It would not be true. The League has hardly begun to function because the terms of peace have not yet been enforced by the victorious nations.

In my opinion a new deal here from the beginning by abandoning the Versailles treaty is impossible. To attempt it would bring chaos and an entire loss of results of the war and general disaster involving the United States. The only possible course is to keep the treaty, modifying it to meet the requirements of the senate reservations and the Chicago platform and probably in some other respects.

A separate declaration of peace was justified only by President Wilson's refusal to act. After March 4 that will no longer be justifiable, unless other powers refuse to consent to modifications, which I do not anticipate. Don't allow Cox to drive you off the ground of Harding's senate vote and our platform.

It is obvious that while Mr. Root was giving political advice, he kept before him a clear recognition of the essential facts relating to peace and the League of Nations. His final admonition was plainly intended to save Mr. Harding from making what he believed would be a fatal mistake in taking the position that the League of Nations was "dead" or had been "scrapped." Mr. Root believes that abandonment of the Versailles treaty and the League is "impossible," and that to attempt it would "bring chaos and an entire loss of results of the war and general disaster involving the United States." He is also opposed to a separate peace with Germany, which he holds would be "unjustifiable." Broadly speaking Mr. Root is for the treaty with the Lodge reservations.

In thus disclosing his views Mr. Root has taken the attitude of a far-seeing statesman. He has not permitted the political controversy or clamor of the hour to obscure his vision or his insight into the problems of the war and of peace. It is unfortunate that Mr. Harding did not see fit to heed his advice, but he has persisted in his contention that the League is dead. Mr. Harding is the president-elect and to his judgment the country will in the last analysis have to defer, but it is strikingly evident that his present judgment is in conflict with the "greatest minds of the country" whom he has promised to consult.

Mr. Root is the ablest statesman in the Republican party and it is expected he may be asked to serve as secretary of state in the new administration. He has studied the treaty carefully, he has weighed its effects, he has been to Europe and in first hand touch with the problems of peace in an international sense, he has helped set up one of the important courts provided for by the league. That he is a competent adviser on this great question of peace will not be denied. Mr. Taft, former president, and himself a distinguished authority on international law and national policy, will be found in accord with Mr. Root on the main facts.

The impossibility of overthrowing the treaty of Versailles, the high obligation of the United States to participate in the treaty and the futility of attempting to "scrap" the League of Nations and to set up in its place an entirely new association of nations, is apparent to all the great minds of the country who know what the treaty really contains, what the League really undertakes, what the necessities of peace and reconstruction really embrace. Because so much is involved to the world in the results of the war, and because it is imperative that there shall be no miscarriage of the victory for civilization which was won in that terrific struggle, it is to be hoped Mr.

Harding will yield to the counsels of the truly great leaders of the nation and of his party and that he will not be misled by the threats and demands of politicians who are out to beat the treaty and league at any cost and without weighing the consequences. As between men like Root, Taft, Lodge, Dr. Eliot, Cardinal Gibbons and Hoover, and men like Hiram Johnson, Borah, Knox and William R. Hearst it ought not to be difficult to make a choice of advice.

JOIN THE RED CROSS

In its annual membership campaign the Red Cross is appealing for further support as an organization where work is never at an end. During the excitement of the World war, millions of American men, women and children eagerly responded whenever the summons came. That time of national emergency is past and the country has returned to the normal ways of peace. But the Red Cross still remains the same efficient agency for service to mankind that it was when the armies of the world were fighting on the battlefields of France. Whenever the call of humanity is heard, it must be prepared for instant action.

No one who has once joined the Red Cross can feel that he has done his full duty if he lets his membership lapse. It should be renewed periodically as an obligation to be loyally met. It is an army of mercy for which volunteers can never be wanting.

From Outagamie county 10,000 members at least are sought. The number should be much larger and the need for solicitation slight. It should be enough to have it generally known that the occasion has again come for enrolling in the membership of the Red Cross for Outagamie County to outrun the expectations based on its past record.

TEACHER DEFICIT

There are, at the very least, 700 teachers in Wisconsin not qualified to teach by the lowest standards of the state, according to reports made by superintendents to the publicity committee of the Wisconsin Teachers' association. Undoubtedly the estimate is low. In all probability there are double that number of unqualified teachers. But, accepting the estimates of the superintendents, if each teacher teaches only an average of fifteen pupils this means that 10,500 children in the state are receiving poor instruction.

How did the situation come about? For four years there has been a steadily decreasing number of people entering the professional training schools for teachers. Great numbers of teachers have left the profession for better paid lines of work. There was a serious shortage of teachers last year. There is still greater shortage this year.

It is too serious to say what the shortage will be next year as there is only a very slight increase in those entering the normals and training courses this fall. In order to open a great many schools, special licenses were issued to unqualified teachers. That doesn't meet the situation. It merely lowers the standard.

Wisconsin must face the facts and say to the world: "We can afford a good teacher for every child in the state." Wherever the demand is great enough there is always a supply.

REVIVAL SEEN IN GERMANY

Berlin—Despite the slumping tendency in German industry at this time, it is remarkable that some important branches are showing signs of great improvement.

Connections between shipyards and coal and iron works are being made in increasing numbers. The shipyards are making feverish efforts to renew Germany's commerce fleet.

Such reconstruction is given an impetus by the recent agreement between the Hamburg-America line and the American Ship and Commerce corporation, and between the Norddeutscher Lloyd line and the U. S. mail steamship company. Admiral Benson of the U. S. shipping board has described these agreements as strictly business deals which will help put the American shipping business on a strong footing.

Here in Germany, one regards them as affording a field for activity for the old German companies and a starting point for a quicker rebuilding of the German fleet than one could have expected under the Versailles treaty conditions.

The German realizes that the American agreement is not made out of friendship for Germany, and he feels that there is in it a clever move to assure America's standing on the seas as against English competition. And, England manifestly is viewing the arrangement with the angry feelings of the "Zusammenkommen" (the too late arrived) and, it is possible that England will strive, perhaps successfully, to make other connections with Germany for a co-operation in the shipping line.

WHY NOT ISOLATE CORYZA

It has been demurely hinted here on more than one occasion that whoever imagines it is possible to contract a communicable disease by merely getting the feet wet or sitting in a draft or changing clothing should be pitied if not punished as a nuisance within the purview of the public health statutes. That footbath is directly accountable for a great deal of preventable illness. Unfortunately some of our old time, very old time indeed, health authorities committed themselves too positively on the actuality of catching cold from such fancied causes as were just mentioned, and nowadays we find these old timers running around in circles trying to scare up tangible evidence to support the dear old delusion. But even the disinterested and utterly unprejudiced guinea pig refuses to succumb to the hypothetical pathological effect of "exposure." Guinea pigs will multiply, but they won't multiply a delusion.

Don't be angry, dear reader, if you happen to be a little too old fashioned about this. I'm not cursing you for your superstitious belief; I'm merely trying to show you the error of your way.

One may suffer chapping of the skin, chilblains, frostbite or freezing from exposure to cold, but one cannot catch coryza, sore throat, laryngitis, bronchitis, pneumonia, diphtheria, the flu or tuberculosis from any such exposure, though all old fogey health authorities that ever held down administrative jobs advise you in one breath to have plenty of fresh air and open the windows and with the next breath warn you to look out you don't expose yourself. Wet feet, drafts and all that sort of thing may be uncomfortable. But we don't contract disease from mere discomfort.

The respiratory infections I have just mentioned are but a few of the diseases needlessly spread thru the community as a consequence of the catching cold delusion. About one-third of all cases of appendicitis operated on today may be charged up against some preventable respiratory infection, and a respiratory infection is a disease spread through the exchange of nose and throat secretions, as in close conversation, open-face sneezing, unimmunized coughing. All the so-called infectious diseases of childhood (measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc.) are respiratory infections. So is epidemic meningitis, and probably infantile paralysis.

Physicians and health officers, not hopelessly tangled up in the catching cold delusion at first, eventually draw the line at tuberculosis and diphtheria; these they concede are not in any way dependent on wet feet, drafts or exposure to cold. It will not be long before they will consent to shove the line up far enough to include pneumonia—some health authorities already have done so. After that it will be but a short step onward to include common coryza (still vulgarly called head cold) and ordinary sore throat in the list of respiratory infections which call for isolation of the patient for a period consistent with public safety.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Shock

When an individual suffers "shock" from an injury or accident is his face pale or flushed? Is it advisable to raise his head or keep it lower than the rest of his body when giving first aid in such a case? (G. P.)

ANSWER—In the state called shock the individual is cold, pale and very weak, either unconscious or dazed. Keep the head as low as the body. The condition and treatment are the same as in fainting.

Boys and Cigarettes

Please give me suggestions for breaking up the cigarette habit in a boy aged 14 years. He has been smoking secretly since he was ten years old, and he confesses he smokes about fifteen cigarettes a day. He says he wants to stop, but can't do so because if he goes without them for a day he is sick all the next day. (M. A. C.)

ANSWER—Two things explain the cigarette habit in boyhood: (1) A rather natural desire to "show off," and (2) mental defect. The case you describe belongs, evidently, to the second class, for the boy smokes in secret. The boy who smokes to "show off" may be brought to his senses, as a rule, by a sound thrashing by his father or teacher or an officer of the law. The mental defective requires special disciplinary training, as in schools for the feeble-minded or delinquents. Incidentally, the person who supplies the boy with cigarettes ought to be man-handled, too.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Monday, Nov. 18, 1895

Percy Donnelly was called on friends at Oshkosh. C. A. Beveridge took his departure for Indiana on a business trip.

The members of the police force dined on vacation Sunday, each being presented with choice cuts from a deer which Henry Gerry shot near C. H. Vinal's railway survey camp at McNaughton.

G. G. Pope resigned his position as manager of Wendelborn's pharmacy.

The mill of the Atlas paper company was compelled to shut down for several days on account of running short of ground wood pulp.

Mrs. Margaret Lynch died the day previous at her home at 1810 Jefferson street at the age of 73 years. Lawrence university football team was defeated by Union college football team the Saturday previous by a score of 16 to 6.

Messrs. Kottenhofen and Greulich of the Ashland Fibre company, reported that they intended to rebuild their plant at Ashland as soon as the insurance was adjusted.

There was no session of either the county board or circuit court and as a consequence it was very quiet at the court house.

A meeting was held at the council rooms for the purpose of organizing a society of the Native Sons of Pennsylvania. The temporary officers were: Chairman, H. J. Siffer; secretary, M. K. Goehnauer; treasurer, W. A. Fannon.

The new 80-light electric light plant of the Wisconsin Mail and Grain company was started up for the first time.

The cadets of the military department of Lawrence university elected Edward James captain of Co. A and James Monahan captain of Co. B.

GERMANY DRIVING AHEAD IN MEXICO Mexico City—Germany is beginning in earnest her drive to regain lost commercial prestige in Mexico. A German news service, distributed free, is appearing now in the press of the capital, and posters displayed throughout the city announce that German motion pictures will be shown shortly at the local cinemas.

The German news service, which is under the direction of the same Germans who dispensed propaganda here during the war, is devoted largely to presenting the German point of view in European political questions, and to information on the rehabilitation of German industry. The service, it is believed, will attempt to demonstrate Germany's recovery from the war, socially and industrially, depicting scenes in manufacturing plants. How to distribute these films, however, evidently has delayed their appearance on the screen, for the leading exchange, which controls nearly all of the theatres, declares that the Mexican public insists on American and Italian films.

Teach Women To Work.

By Frederic J. Haskin

Washington, D. C.—Whether you are going to work every year. And whether they like it or not, more women have to go to work every year.

A good living earned in office or factory looks better to many of them than cooking on a gas stove in a little flat for whatever a man chooses to give them. They are finding also that it is possible to have a job and a husband both. And lots of them have to take the job because they can't find a husband who is able to support them.

So many a girl is just as much on her own in life as her brother. Isn't it right and fair then to give her just as good a training for the struggle she is up against? The woman of business must write for the newspaper or be a lawyer or doctor. The one seeking a trade is almost always forced into stenography, millinery or dressmaking. And, worst of all, comparatively few of them are encouraged to learn any trade or profession at all. While the boy is coached and encouraged and inspired, the girl is left alone on the old-fashioned assumption that some man will come along and take care of her. And if the assumption proves false, as it now so often seems to do, she starts out in her working life with only a few occupations open to her and very likely with no training for any of these.

Is it fair? The question is raised and ably canvassed by the Woman's Bureau of the Labor Department, which has made a survey to find out what sort of work women are doing in the trades, and what training they are offered in the schools.

Where Women Displace Men Women have in the past three years entered factories and shops to do work previously delegated to men only. Women had for years been employed in the textile and clothing trades, and at such work as making paper boxes and artificial flowers. Recently they have entered foundries, machine shops, and factories making furniture, optical goods, instruments, and masks, and airplanes. In a few of their new jobs, chiefly where the work was heavy, women were found inadequate, but in the main they have developed satisfactory skill in running machines and handling tools.

As industry gets back to a peace basis, there is a slight reduction in the number of women employed in lumber industries, and a falling back to their pre-war status in chemical and miscellaneous industries. In the metal trades, women are retaining their war-time hold.

According to the Woman's Bureau, the chances are that women will be used in increasing proportions in industry as time goes on. For one thing, the proportion of women immigrants as compared to men is increasing. The Woman's Bureau regards it as highly significant that there were more women coming into this country than leaving it in 1919, although in that year our total emigration exceeded our immigration. With this condition in mind, and also the fact that women are in demand in some states in the so-called men's industries, the bureau set out to discover what chances a woman has to take a vocational training course for technical work.

What Schools Offer

From statistics obtained, the bureau found that high schools and trade schools apparently still assume that girls are interested in domestic science, dressmaking, and millinery, but not in automobile mechanics, wood-working or blue-print reading. While boys are encouraged to take up such trades, girls are either not admitted to the classes, or if there is no ruling against their admission, no attempt is made to interest them by explaining the course and the opportunities in that line of work.

Please send me a table of depreciation used by the Federal Government? O. O.

A. The Bureau of Internal Revenue informs us that the Government has never prepared a table of depreciation. The burden of proof of depreciation is left to the taxpayer.

Q. What animal bears the fur known as nutria? M. H.

A. Nutria is the fur of the coypu, pronounced kol' poo, a South American aquatic rodent.

Q. What did it cost to build the Taj Mahal and how long did it take? D. B. C.

A. The Taj Mahal was built from 1629 to 1650 by Shah Jahan as the burial place for his favorite wife, Mumtaz-Mahal, at the cost of over $3,000,000.

Q. Is cod liver oil a food or a medicine? A. G.

A. Cod liver oil may be considered as either food or medicine or both. It is one of the most valuable therapeutic agents at the disposal of the medical profession. It is a better food, more readily absorbed than any other oil, due mainly to the fact that it oxidizes more easily than other oils.

Q. What was the longest drop kick ever made in football? The longest placement kick? R. T. O.

A. The longest drop kick ever made in a football game of which we find record was 2 yards. It was made on October 16, 1915, by N. Payne of North Dakota Wesleyan against the Northwestern Normal. The record placement kick was 65 yards by J. T. Hoxall of 1897.

Q. What is the difference in cause of cyclones and tornadoes? J. B. M.

A. Cyclones occur at all hours of the day and night whereas tornadoes show a diurnal period as distinctly marked as any in meteorology. Cyclones result from a disturbance of the equilibrium of the atmosphere considered horizontally, but tornadoes

Of 164 schools in which women were enrolled in industrial training courses last term, there were only three schools where women were taking automobile mechanics and repair. In two schools women had machine shop training; in two they were taught wood-working; in eight watch-making and jewelry trades; and in two glove-making.

Most of the courses in which women and girls were enrolled were the traditional ones. Sixty-six schools taught the clothing trades, 47 millinery, and 11 gave instruction in branches of the textile trade.

It would be too much to expect that a large number of girls should clamor for courses in, say, automobile mechanics, if they merely knew that they would not be excluded if they should apply. When the trade schools were new, boys had to be interested in them. The Woman's Bureau maintains that a large proportion of girls could be interested in industrial training.

The old contention that a girl looks upon a job merely as a dull interlude between school and a husband is failing. There are thousands of women in factories who have dependents at home, and there are other thousands who add their earnings to those of their husbands. It is believed—though there are no figures available—that it is more common for girl workers to turn in all of their wages to their families than for their brothers to do so. Most of these women are eager for advancement and take a real interest in the work they do.

Where Women Excel Women have made good in work requiring attention to fine detail, in inspecting products, in assembling and finishing furniture, and grinding and polishing optical lenses. They are not, as a class, very desirable in foundries and rolling mills where heavy weights are to be lifted and smoke and heat are intense, though they have been used satisfactorily at work requiring weights to be lifted when pulleys or some other mechanical apparatus bears the strain.

From its observations of women in factories and shops, the bureau concludes that abilities vary not so much by sex as by the individual, and that therefore it is difficult to say exactly where a woman's limitations in industry are to be fixed. A few women are interested in blacksmithing. A much larger number want to be automobile mechanics. Few women have the physical strength to pound on an anvil, and many lack the necessary qualifications to become expert mechanics. But some women have an inclination for these trades, which is not more unnatural, the bureau believes, than for a man to be a tailor or a stenographer.

The Department of Labor has no idea of advocating that women should not fit themselves for the clothing or millinery trades if their bent lies that way. But Miss Mary Anderson, chief of the Woman's Bureau, says that these industries are over-crowded, and that the Government should see to it that girls and women are given the same opportunities for training in other vocations as men and boys receive, especially as skilled girl workers are in demand in some of the manufacturing states.

The Woman's Bureau has no authority to fix policies for schools of the country to provide an equal chance for all pupils to learn a vocation. It can only set forth the facts. In its report it brings out the point that the act under which the Federal Board for Vocational Education financially assist state schools. This provision is now being almost entirely used to help train boys for occupations, whereas, Miss Anderson claims, girls are equally entitled to the benefits of the act.

Mr. Nyhus will be aided in the purchase of Guernsey calves by Harvey Jamison. A number will probably be secured in Outagamie county and the remainder from Fond du Lac county.

The boys and girls of the county are showing keen interest in the calf club idea. There will be plenty of applications, from all appearances, and the committee will do all it can to give every boy and girl a fair opportunity to join.

The success of the club will depend more on the parents than on the children, Mr. Nyhus believes. He said they should encourage their children to start into business for themselves while young. The calves are to be owned by them after the bank is repaid, and the youngsters receive the profits. This gives them a practical idea of the rudiments of successful farming, and also teaches them the proper use of money. Mr. Nyhus states. It also stimulates the child's interest in the farm and may be the means of keeping many on the farm after they finish school.

MORE ROLL CALL WORKERS ON JOB

Better Weather Puts New Energy Into Red Cross Membership Canvass.

The Red Cross roll call was greatly stimulated with the improvement in the weather on Monday. Some of the rural workers found it impossible to start their canvass last week but practically every solicitor was reported to be working Monday.

Few reports have reached the headquarters at the Sherman house to indicate the progress, but unofficial returns show that many are being enrolled. Definite information is expected to be available before the end of the week.

The Red Cross center has received a communication from the central division, Chicago, announcing that the International Association of Rotary clubs has agreed to await American Red Cross reports on all disasters before any Rotary club is asked for relief funds. The suggestion was made by Albert S. Adams, Atlanta, Ga., past president of the association. Chesley R. Perry, general secretary, announced approval of the suggestion.

This action of the Rotary organization is another endorsement of the Red Cross as the official disaster relief agency of the world. Immediate emergency aid, unified administration, trained personnel and restoration of individual sufferers to the point where they are able to support themselves are possible through this phase of Red Cross work.

Some Appleton families still fail to grasp the meaning of this year's plan of soliciting, according to Mrs. B. W. Wells, roll call chairman. They entertain the idea that memberships are to be secured at a factory, office or store where a person is employed, and therefore turn down the solicitor who calls at the home. The Outagamie chapter voted to solicit only in the homes this year, and not to approach any factory or business place, thus saving time and annoyance to employers. The solicitor's visit to the home is the only time a person will be visited, and a postponement of membership the first time makes another call necessary.

CLOSE ENTRIES IN CALF CLUB SOON

Parents Are Urged to Encourage Children in Pure Bred Calf Culture.

Rural school teachers of the county are sending in applications practical every day for the boys' and girls' calf club, organized by the First National bank. From 35 to 40 names have already been received.

The committee of Holstein and Guernsey men working with Paul O. Nyhus, farm agent of the bank, has decided to close the entries the latter part of November. Walter Wiekert and Mr. Nyhus will then arrange to purchase the pure bred Holstein calves for the applicants. They will probably go to Dodge county with the idea of securing the best possible animals.

Mr. Nyhus will be aided in the purchase of Guernsey calves by Harvey Jamison. A number will probably be secured in Outagamie county and the remainder from Fond du Lac county. The plan is to have the calves in the hands of the club members by Dec. 1.

The boys and girls of the county are showing keen interest in the calf club idea. There will be plenty of applications, from all appearances, and the committee will do all it can to give every boy and girl a fair opportunity to join.

The success of the club will depend more on the parents than on the children, Mr. Nyhus believes. He said they should encourage their children to start into business for themselves while young. ## APPLETON HUNTER IS MAROONED ON GREEN BAY

Albert Delz had a thrilling experience on Green Bay recently while duck hunting. A storm came up and the sea ran so high that he anchored to protect himself. When he came to pull up his anchor it was so deeply buried in the mud that he was unable to raise it. A tug finally came to his assistance, but he lost his hunting skiff which he was towing in to the shore. He was at Green Bay Monday endeavoring to locate it.

CROWDS VISIT LOCAL DRUG STORE AT KOZAK OPENING

All day Thursday a continuous stream of men and women visited Prof. Lunt, the noted Kozak Health Expert at Schlitz Bros., drug store to see and learn more about the famous "10,000 Formula."

Some interesting tests took place. From among scores of callers, a dozen or more of Appleton's prominent residents were given sample doses of Kozak and within ten minutes asked what effect it had in their individual cases. Most of the replies were really remarkable. "I have suffered from stomach trouble and a run down system for years," said one well-known lady. "I've tried about everything until my stomach is very sensitive. Kozak seems to be different. It is pleasant."

One local business man said: "Kozak seems to touch the spot. What I have needed is a body builder and stomachic. See, I just belched a sour gaseous fluid—nothing has ever done that before. I believe Kozak just suits my case." Other statements were equally remarkable. "The success of Kozak in overcoming stomach, kidney, liver and catarrhal troubles is not surprising when one takes into consideration that the roots, herbs, barks and berries that go in the making of this remarkable remedy are gathered from the most remote sections of the world and scientifically compounded by expert chemists," said The Kozak Man who will meet the public daily and evenings at Schlitz Brothers store.

SLOW MOVEMENT OF MILK STOCKS

Market Letter Says There Has Been But Little Change in Milk Market.

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Madison, Wis.—The Market Division says today of the milk market "There has been no decided change in the milk market. The general price tendency is downward and because of the unsettled conditions in the condensed milk market there has been no increased activity on the part of condensaries. Some manufacturers have been unable to move their stocks in large quantities because of the in active market. There is nothing definite to indicate just how soon all the condensaries can be expected to return to normal conditions. At present it does not look very encouraging as the stocks on hand are very large and the sale from these stocks very slow. The increase on total stocks on condensed and evaporated milk in the country on October 1, 1920 amounted to 102.7 per cent over the holdings on October 1, 1919. The unsold stocks held by the manufacturer on October 1, 1920 amounted to 201,259,543 pounds which amount represented an increase of 103.7 per cent over the stocks held on October 1, 1919. City milk prices are dropping in some cities and the price paid to farmers for milk has been lowered in a number of places. This action no doubt is due in part to the general price lowering tendency now in effect over the country."

LITTLE INFLUENZA REPORTED IN STATE

State Board of Health Urges Preparation for Recurrence of "Flu."

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Madison, Wis.—Is Wisconsin due for another epidemic of influenza and pneumonia?
This question is interesting the state board of health at the present time. Statistics obtained during the influenza epidemic in Massachusetts in 1890-91 showed there were three distinct outbreaks of the disease. The death peak of the initial outbreak occurred in January, 1890. The first recurrence or second peak occurred in May, 1891, or sixteen months later. The second recurrence or third peak was noted in January, 1892, eight months after the second peak and twenty-four months after the first.
In the 1918 epidemic the death peak in Wisconsin occurred in October. Sixteen months later (February, 1920), came the first recurrence or second death peak, the time interval being identical with that noted in 1890-91. According to previous performances there should have been a recurrence of influenza and pneumonia in Wisconsin during October, 1920. There were during October, however, but twenty-one cases of influenza reported to the state board of health, a number which may be regarded as normal at this season of the year.
"Whether or not the expected third peak of influenza will occur this winter is an extremely difficult matter to fore tell," says the board, "for the reason that the intervals between epidemics other than that of 1890 have varied widely."
"In view of the uncertainty of this matter the state board of health feels there is but one sensible course to be pursued: 'Be prepared.' Moreover, it should constantly be borne in mind that any precautionary measures against influenza likewise affords protection against all other communicable diseases. Health officers throughout the state are strongly urged to make definite plans for prompt diagnosis of cases, immediate placarding of infected homes and careful isolation of patients. The rules and regulations of the board should be studied and plans devised for their effective application."
The precautions to be observed by individuals are now generally understood, although, it must be said, in adequately applied. One striking fact, however, stands out. Persons who go to bed promptly when feeling badly and obtain absolute rest have a far better chance of recovery than those who keep at work and incidentally infect those coming in contact with them."

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.
These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit.

Spats Are Very Becoming

It's rather nice to be able to wear low shoes when you have spats to keep your ankles warm.

But you will be surprised to see how trim and smart these snug fitting spats can be. Many women purposely buy low shoes so as to be able to wear them. They are quite captivating.

KAUKAUNA LOSES TO MITCHELL TEAM

Visitors Score Two Touchdowns in Last Period—Kaukauna Counts First.

The Milwaukee Mitchell Athletic club upheld its record of no games lost in two seasons by winning from the Kaukauna American Legion football team, 13 to 3, Sunday afternoon. The game was scoreless for three quarters, although Milwaukee had more chances than the Kaukauna team.

Milwaukee was close to the goal line only once during the first three quarters. In the first quarter the visitors carried the ball to within two feet of the line, and there the legions held them for four downs.

Kaukauna began a determined march toward the goal in the second quarter, but the half ended with the ball on Milwaukee's 20 yard line.

The third quarter was played with the ball near the middle of the field. In the fourth quarter Kaukauna forced the ball to the 15 yard line, but was stopped by the defense of the Mitchells. Lindauer, quarterback, called a drop kick, and the ball cleared the cross bar by a narrow margin.

With only about five minutes to play, it looked like a victory for the Legion, but Milwaukee began a stiff fight, and carried the ball over for a touchdown and kicked the goal. A few minutes later, the Milwaukee right half crossed the line on an end run from the 30 yard line. They failed to kick the goal. The game ended with the ball near the middle of the field.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM LOSES TO CADETS

Appleton Plays Soldiers Even in First Half, But Lose in Second.

The Appleton high school team lost its first game of the season Saturday when it was defeated by St. John Military academy, 42 to 27.

Forward passes were tried frequently by both teams. Appleton made the first touchdown in the first three minutes by successful passes from Roach to Jacobson.

St. John also made a touchdown by forward passes five minutes later. A pass, Jacobson to Dunn, scored the second touchdown for Appleton, and St. John evened the score again by crossing the goal line after a series of plunges.

Appleton forced the ball over the line once more, making the score 21 to 14. St. John tied the tally by making a long run from the kickoff and then by a number of line plunges.

In the second quarter Roach made the last touchdown for Appleton by receiving the kickoff and running 85 yards for a touchdown. The half ended with the score 28 to 27. Roach having failed to kick the last goal.

The second half was played in darkness, and the quarters were limited to ten minutes each. St. John's team did not appear on the field until nearly 4 o'clock. Aided by the darkness and a few trick plays, the Appleton boys were able to cross the goal line twice more before time was called.

TAGGART JOINS COX IN HUNTING JOURNEY
By United Press Leased Wire
French Lick, Ind.—Tom Taggart left his political guests to entertain them at his French Lick hotel here today and was speeding toward the south to join Governor Cox in a two weeks' hunting trip.

As the democratic leaders began to gather in force, the Indiana democratic political boss made an eleven hour change in his plans and decided to make the trip with Cox.

Many democratic leading lights have come out of the east and are taking the "rest cure." The Hoosier oracles sudden departure went unexplained. Governor Smith of New York, and Charles Murphy, boss of Tammany Hall, headed the eastern delegation.

FOUR TEAMS LEFT IN TITLE CONTEST

Saturday's Games Eliminate Several Contenders for Gridiron Honors.

(By Henry L. Farrell)
By United Press Leased Wire
New York—Football's "bread line" standing outside the door for an issue of championship pie was strung out somewhat today.

Princeton in the east, Notre Dame and Ohio State in the west and Georgia Tech in the south, head the line.

Pittsburgh and Harvard continued their shuffle to the front but neither showed the class that the Tigers did in trouncing Yale and Penn State last prestige by barely getting a tie with Lehigh.

Illinois was pulled out of the line in the west by Wisconsin, leaving Ohio State in undisputed lead of the western conference while Notre Dame trounced Indiana.

Georgia Tech gave further reasons for the southern claim by beating the strong Georgetown eleven.

With the season just about ended it seems improbable that a clean cut title for the eastern championship will be acquired.

Princeton is through for the year and unless Yale pulls the "impossible" and beats Harvard next Saturday, the Tigers and the Crimson can both claim the eastern honors.

Ohio State and Illinois, contenders for last year's conference championship, meet in the west. If Ohio State should lose, the wreath will have to be divided among Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin.

Regardless of conference figures and prestige, Notre Dame very likely will be considered the real western champion if Coach Rockne's eleven finishes an undefeated season.

George Tech seems almost sure of the southern honors.

WANT NOTRE DAME TO PLAY PENN STATE TEAM

By United Press Leased Wire
New York—Negotiations for a post season game between Notre Dame and Penn State at the Polo Grounds have been opened by the New York National league club, according to an announcement by Secretary O'Brien.

The athletic committee of both universities will consider the invitation at meetings this week.

LAWRENCE WINDS UP SEASON WITH WIN OVER CARROLL

Presbyterians Completely Outclassed, Losing by 48 to 0 Score.

CLEVER TRICK PLAY WORKS

Quarterback Johnson Stars in Play Which Throws Carroll Off Guard.

Completely outclassed in every department of the game, Carroll college was defeated by Lawrence in the final gridiron battle of the year at Lawrence field Saturday afternoon, 48 to 0. While it was quite generally admitted that Lawrence would have more or less of an easy time to down the Presbyterians, the difference between the teams was so great as to surprise even the most optimistic Blue and White supporters. The only time Carroll approached within scoring distance was in the third quarter when the wind was at the back of the visitors, making it impossible for Lawrence to punt the ball out of the danger zone. The nearest Carroll got to the Lawrence line was the ten yard line and this feat was only possible because the Lawrence team was penalized five times for "holding," giving Carroll a total gain of 25 yards and four more tries with each penalty. But for these penalties it is doubtful if Carroll could have gotten within the 20 yard line at any time.

The field was hard, but rough, and a cold west wind blew across the gridiron, making it decidedly uncomfortable for the 1500 spectators. The wind was so strong that punts toward the west made but little headway, some of them gaining less than 20 yards.

Lawrence excelled in every department of the game. Carroll made first down unaided only five times during the game, but was given a number of other first downs by officials who frequently penalized the Lawrence squad.

The visitors made several substantial gains through center and a few of their forward passes were successful. Lawrence, on the other hand, skirted the Carroll ends and tore through the tackles. More than a dozen forward passes were successful, several of them resulting in touchdowns.

Coach McChesney sent almost an entire team of substitutes in the last period. These men not only held the visitors safe but managed to score two touchdowns.

Lawrence had its first chance to score about two minutes after the whistle blew when Kubitz crossed the enemy line but the ball was called back and the team penalized. The ball was quickly carried to the one yard line where Lawrence fumbled. Carroll punted about 15 yards, the ball going to Lawrence. Kubitz carried the pigskin over the line for the first touchdown on the third play.

Carroll kicked off to Doering who sprinted 70 yards for another touchdown. The goal was kicked.

Lawrence kicked to Carroll and after seasawing in the middle of the field while Lawrence carried the ball to the visitors one foot line where Carroll held. The Presbyterians punted against the wind, Lawrence putting the ball in play on the visitors' 10 yard line and after a few plays Lawrence scored again.

With the wind at their back, the visitors neared Lawrence's goal in the second period, getting close enough to try a drop kick which failed. The ball was put in play on the local 20 yard line and Lawrence attempted to punt but the wind held back the ball. Carroll opened up with a forward pass attack which became dangerous but the rally was nipped when Basing intercepted a pass on his own 15 yard line and dashed 85 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take Lawrence long to get started in the third period. A few gains through the line and then a pass Elliot to Basing, netted a touchdown. Carroll got busy thereafter and pushed the ball into Lawrence territory, keeping it there the greater part of the period. Toward the close Lawrence worked the ball beyond the middle of the field but not within scoring distance.

In the fourth period the visitors were victimized by one of the cleverest tricks ever seen on a local gridiron. Immediately after Lawrence had intercepted a pass and regained possession of the ball, well within her own territory, Quarterback Johnson flew into a "rage," declaring he was through playing with a team of boys and started off the field, condemning Lawrence in unmeasured terms. Carroll players, thrown off their guard by this burst of "temper" began cajoling him to remain and while they were talking to him the ball was snapped. Johnson turned sharply, started for the goal and when well out of reach of the nearest Carroll man, grabbed a long pass and hiked to the goal, scoring a touchdown while Carroll was recovering from its amazement.

More substitutes went into the game after that and they managed to push the ball down the field and finally scored another touchdown. The last few minutes of the game were played in the middle of the field, with Lawrence holding the ball.

MADISON WILD AS BADGERS WIN GAME

Twenty-five Thousand Rabid Fans See Richards' Men Win, 14 to 9.

Madison—Thousands of joy crazed University of Wisconsin students and former students shouted and paraded in Madison Saturday night and all day Sunday in celebration of the 14 to 9 victory over Bon Zupke's Illini in the annual homecoming game. It was one of the greatest battles ever staged on a Wisconsin gridiron, replete with thrills from start to finish. The battle spoiled Zupke's chance to win the undisputed midwestern title.

The Badgers knew they were in a fight, but they also knew that they had Guy Sundt in their lineup. Sundt takes his place alongside Pat King, Phil King, O'Dea, Keckie Moll and the stars of other days. Curiously enough, it was not his offensive playing that makes him the great star of a great battle. It was his demoniacal work on defense that permitted the eagle of victory to sit atop the Cardinal banner Saturday night.

Other Stars
Sundt was not the only Badger star. There were a half dozen others, whose work stands out brilliantly, but the blonde fullback wins the laurel wreath. After displaying his masterful ability all through the contest, Sundt saved the day for the Badgers in the last quarter. With the count 14 to 9 against them, the Illini were making the well known desperate Illini stand. A flock of forward passes brought the ball to Wisconsin's ten yard line. Bob Fletcher tossed a short pass over the scrimmage line with three Illini waiting to receive it, but Sundt leaped over their heads and gathered it in himself. It was the crowning climax to an afternoon of climax that kept 25,000 fans, by far the largest crowd that ever saw a Badger game here, tense with excitement from the minute that Ralph Fletcher, the halfback with the wizard toe, booted on the first of his three place kicks for Illini.

Other Badger heroes take their place with Illinoi. Rollie Williams, little heard of before, proved the most consistent ground gainer the Badgers had. The Illini line was a hard one to crack and the Cardinal could make little headway against it, but when the line was cracked, it was usually Williams, who carried the ball. Then there was Barr, the little quarter who was on the sending end of a series of death dealing passes, and with Tobell, Elliott and Weston out there to receive them.

MONEY COULDN'T BUY THE GOOD TANLAC DID

That is What Mrs. Baker Says After Her Health Was Restored—Rheumatism and Other Troubles Overcome.

"I can't remember when I have felt as well and strong as I do now, and no amount of money could buy the good Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. E. D. Baker, 1343 Maple St., Des Moines, Iowa.

"About a year and a half ago I was taken down with influenza, which left my stomach in such condition that nothing agreed with me. After every meal I had a full, distressed feeling and such cramping pains I could hardly stand it. It was hard for me to get my breath and I had such spells of palpitation of the heart that it alarmed me. These troubles were so bad at night that I often had to sit up or walk the floor for hours as a thief.

and I hardly knew what it was to get a good night's sleep. I also suffered very much with neuralgia in my face and rheumatism in my hands and arms. Often my hands and arms got so swollen and stiff I could hardly use them.

"At the time I started taking Tanlac I was losing weight and strength and gradually going down hill, but a few bottles of this medicine have relieved me of all my troubles. I can now eat anything I want and never have the least trouble after meals. I am not bothered with neuralgia or rheumatism and I sleep soundly every night. I have gained so much strength and feel so much better that I not only do my housework with ease but help my husband with his work in the store. All the thanks and praise for my present health belong to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Appleton by John E. Voigt; F. O. Brown, Shiocton; Dr. J. M. Sattler, Bear Creek; H. E. Abend, Dale; R. E. Lowell, Little Chute.

GREATER SERVICE

in this WHITE tread

The tread of white, tire rubber on its foundation of sturdy, fine grade fabric, is responsible for Kokomo's reputation for exceptional service.

Pure white rubber wears longer. Pure rubber needs no disguising color. In fact, adding color has a tendency to make rubber hard and crumbly, while the springy, resilient silvery tread of the Kokomo wears down very slowly and, because of its "give," avoids injury from sharp objects.

Buy Kokomo and enjoy maximum service.

Reliance Motor Truck Co., Appleton, Wisconsin

Gentlemen:

In reply to your letter of the 21st will state that the service we have received from the one and one-half ton Reliance Motor Truck we purchased of you last Spring is fine,—couldn't get any better. Right here we want to mention that the service we are receiving from you people is worth a whole lot to us for we are thereby assured that our truck is on the job every day. It is certainly worth 50% of the price of the truck for a truck owner to buy a truck from a manufacturer that is in that neighborhood, as it is very superior to any other service you may receive.

Yours truly,

SAYS PLUMB PLAN WILL SOLVE U. S. RAIL PROBLEM

Forum Speaker Outlines Alleged Advantages of U. S. Ownership.

WOULD CUT LIVING COSTS

Carl D. Thompson Believes Railroad Men Should Operate Rail Lines.

A solution of the railroad problem entirely different from the one contained in the Esch-Cummings bill was presented at the meeting of the People's Forum at Lawrence Memorial chapel Sunday evening by Carl D. Thompson, Chicago. His subject was "Government Ownership of Railroads and the Plumb Plan."

The burden of his address was the need of substituting social service for private profit in order to have the railroad question permanently solved. The real problem is to break the "vicious spiral" caused by successive increases in wages, then in rates. Placing the railroads on a basis of actual capitalization instead of the book value of the roads would help to accomplish this. To break the spiral would start the cost of living downward, he stated, and the Plumb plan will do this.

Mr. Thompson represents the Government Ownership League, Chicago, which is fostering the Plumb plan of adjusting the railroad difficulty. It provides for government ownership and operation of railroads, and is one of the plans considered by congress when the roads were returned to private ownership. The Esch-Cummings bill was adopted and the Plumb plan set aside.

The lower floor of the chapel was well filled. J. P. Frank, forum chairman, presided. Community singing was conducted by Prof. Carl A. W. Brigham, accompanied by Miss Doris Brigham. A solo, "Danny Boy," was rendered by Miss Maud Harwood.

Relates Rail History
Relating the history of government control during the war, Mr. Thompson stated that the railroad problem, the labor difficulties of the railroads and the question of inadequate trans-
